By Mitch Keirstead

Mitch Keirstead comes from a large family of brothers and sisters who are all well known Ontario artists, the most famous being his brother James. Keirstead paintings have been sought after for over 30 years and depict scenes of the Ontario countryside and common activities. Often bringing back fond childhood memories, they bring special appeal to purchasers of his work.

His pieces are being displayed in private homes and galleries around the world.

Mitch prefers to produce many of his works using a delicate knife technique with oils creating a very realistic scene. This piece depicts a streetscape in Elora.
